Milk vendors in EMUs

2470. SHRI NANA DESHMUKH: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether milkmen and vendors virtually takeover the Electrical Multiple Units (EMUs), popularly called shuttles, playing between Faridabad—Delhi, and dump their milk cans in the doorways of the trains;

(b) whether it has become difficult for 50,000 office-goers and students, who commute to Delhi in the EMUs everyday, especially women and the elderly, to alight and enter the shuttles; and

(c) if so, the steps being taken by Government to solve the problems of EMUs commuters?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) to (c) No, Sir. Separate bogies are earmarked for milkmen/vendors in Electrical Multiple Units (EMU) trains. In addition, regular and surprise checks are conducted by ticket checking staff to restrict the unauthorized entry of milkmen and vendors in shuttle trains. These checks will be intensified.
